

Seminole Osceola looks very dignified here in his regal clothes, but he was also a fierce warrior. Even his foes regarded him as a courageous leader of men. He is among the great and noble leaders in the history of our state and is depicted here on the handle of the punch ladle of the “Battleship Silver.”